Beschreibung

Small and yet so big

We are a 110'square meter feet office, owner-operated coworking space in Berlin Kreuzberg. Here employees, freelancers, start-ups and commuters come together. This fine space offers coworkers a place where they can find a place to work in a relaxed, flexible and affordable way. It offers everything he needs: Internet, meeting room, mail service or 9 to 6 access.

This makes working fun - the premises
The individual work areas are characterised by their brightness and tidy design. Stylistically very neutral and functional, individual colour elements always stand out as optical highlights. Here every coworker finds his workflow and feels directly comfortable. Whether single table or group workstation - each table is fully equipped with electricity, pleasant chairs, high-speed Internet and reasonable lighting. Of course, the communal kitchen is also part of the inventory. Here you will find coffee, tea and nourishment. Here, too, the kitchen proves to be an ideal networking opportunity - after all, everyone is thirsty or in the mood for a bite to eat at some point.
